Offering Summary

630 Haight Street presents a rare opportunity to acquire a well-maintained three (3) unit multifamily asset in the heart of San Francisco's highly desirable Lower Haight neighborhood. The property features an exceptional unit mix consisting of one (1) three-bedroom / one-bath unit, one (1) four-bedroom / two-bath unit, and one (1) five-bedroom / two-bath unit, catering to a wide range of tenant profiles and providing strong long-term rental appeal.

The spacious flats blend classic San Francisco charm with modern updates, featuring high ceilings, hardwood flooring, abundant natural light, and thoughtfully updated kitchens and bathrooms. Select units include skylights, bonus space, and remodeled finishes throughout, while the property also benefits from a large shared backyard, on-site laundry, and additional storage.

Ideally located near Duboce Park, Alamo Square, Hayes Valley, and the vibrant Divisadero and Haight Street retail corridors, the property is surrounded by some of San Francisco's most popular restaurants, cafes, and neighborhood amenities. Its central location also provides convenient access to public transportation and major commuter routes, further enhancing tenant demand.

With large flat-style units, strong in-place income, and a premier Lower Haight location, 630 Haight Street represents an excellent opportunity to acquire a pride-of-ownership asset in one of San Francisco's most consistently desirable rental markets.
